Policyholders, i.e., natural persons who have concluded an insurance contract* via the internet, telephone, e-mail or other means of communication, have the right to withdraw from the contract within 14 days from the date of conclusion of the insurance contract (in the case of life insurance, within 30 days from the date on which the consumer is informed of the conclusion of the insurance contract), with the exception of:

- travel, baggage and similar insurance contracts with a term of less than 30 days;
- insurance contracts for which notification of an insured event has been received.

To withdraw from the insurance contract, you must submit to ERGO a completed sample withdrawal form or a clear statement of your decision to withdraw. The completed withdrawal form or statement must be submitted by email to info@ergo.lt or delivered to the address Lvivo Str. 37, Vilnius. The withdrawal of the insurance contract shall be executed in accordance with the applicable legislation of the Republic of Lithuania.

* When the insurance contract is concluded for purposes unrelated to your business, trade, craft or profession.
